

FLINT HILLS / FORT RILEY JOINT LAND USE STUDY SOCIAL MEDIA

Stay up-to-date with the latest JLUS news at www.fortrileyjlus.com

JLUS Purpose

A Joint Land Use Study (JLUS) is a collaborative study conducted by city and county officials, residents, and the military installation. The purpose of the study is to identify compatible land uses and growth management guidelines near the installation. The process encourages the local community and installation to act as a team in order to prevent or limit any encroachment issues caused by future mission expansion or local growth.

READ MORE...

Current News

Check back here to find out the latest updates!!

For More Information

Gary Stith, AICP, Director
Flint Hills Regional Council

TEL:
301.529.2436

MAIL:
gary@flinthillsregion.org

FOLLOW US:

Follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/fortrileyjlus

v/735735686603025/photos/755113341331926/